Survey - Customer Accessibility Solution & Indoor navigation solutions

Iarnród Éireann are Seeking participants - Customer Accessibility Solution and Indoor navigation Solution.

Customer Accessibility Solution: The Customer Accessibility Solution is designed to provide a seamless and independent way for customers to request assistance when travelling by rail. Accessibility support is available at every station, and this new solution enables customers to request the help they need without having to contact Iarnród Éireann staff directly.

Indoor Navigation Proof of Concept: A six month Proof of Concept (PoC) will be undertaken to evaluate two complementary indoor navigation technologies at Connolly Station, commencing in June, 2026. Technologies under evaluation:

- Bluetooth Low Energy (BLE) beacon-based navigation Supplier: Mapsted
- Camera/LIDAR-based navigation Supplier: GoodMaps

The Proof of Concept will assess each solution across key dimensions, including, ease of use, accessibility, and suitability for customers with diverse needs, safety considerations, and overall user experience.

Findings from the trial will directly inform recommendations for future investment and a potential phased rollout across the wider Iarnród Éireann network.

Your feedback will play an important role in shaping the future of accessible navigation across our network. If you are interested in taking part, please click the link below:

Killimor Streetscape Scheme

Closing date: Friday 17th April 2026 at 23:30

Galway County Council is pleased to offer a Streetscape Enhancement Scheme for Killimor.

The Scheme is to encourage residents, tenants and shop owners to engage in best practice in restoring shopfronts and in the presentation of properties in the village centre. The Scheme encourages greening enhancement of entrances/terraces/central community spaces with appropriate planting; decluttering (removal of unnecessary signs, wiring, flagpoles etc.. on buildings); painting and the use of a palette of colours, to highlight the qualities and specific features of building frontages in order to bring about a consistently high standard which reflects the local architecture and characteristics of the village and its surrounding areas. Eligible

Applicants:

- Owners or tenants of commercial, residential, or unoccupied buildings located within the qualifying area of Killimor Village Centre (see map).
- Residents, occupiers, or lease holders of Local Authority–owned buildings within the qualifying area.
- Community and voluntary groups, where they apply: in consultation with the property owner/tenant, or on behalf of an unoccupied property within the qualifying area.

Training Links 2026 – 2028

Closing date: Friday 24th April 2026 at 5pm

The Wheel is delighted to announce that applications are now open for the 2026-2028 Training Links programme. If your organisation wants to strengthen skills, collaborate with peers, and build long-term capacity, this is your opportunity! Training Links supports community and voluntary organisations to form Training Networks – a group of independently run and governed community and voluntary sector organisations who decide to come together as a group to undertake training that they may not be able to do individually.

Training Networks are invited to apply for grants ranging from €10,000.00 to €50,000.00. This year's total fund is €240,000.00. Who is Eligible?

Applications are welcome from new and previously funded networks who have completed their programme or previously unsuccessful networks.

Training Links is open to networks of organisations that:

- ◆ Share a common training need
- ◆ Commit to working collaboratively
- ◆ Meet the programme eligibility criteria (full details available on The Wheel website).

Domestic Abuse: A Workplace issue

Wednesday 8th April 2026 from 10:00am to 11:00am - Webinar via Zoom

The Wheel is presenting this webinar free to attend for members-only.

In Ireland, 1 in 3 women face psychological, physical, or sexual abuse from an intimate partner (EU Fundamental Rights Agency, 2024). Domestic violence and abuse, including coercive control, are serious human rights violations and public health issues. The introduction of Statutory Domestic Violence Leave in November 2023 highlights domestic abuse as a workplace concern.

Become an LGBT Champions Programme

BECOME AN LGBT CHAMPION
Be the champion older LGBTQI+ people deserve
For health and social care professionals working with older people

WHY IT MATTERS

- Older LGBTQI+ people are more likely to live alone, face isolation, and fear discrimination in care settings.
- Many worry about being forced "back into the closet" when accessing care and support.
- Understanding lived experience is vital to ensuring dignity, safety, and inclusion in later life.

WHAT THE PROGRAMME OFFERS

LGBT Ireland's Online Champions Training Programme equips health and social care professionals with:

- Expert-led, practical training
- Tools to create safer, more inclusive services
- Resources to support LGBTQI+ older people with dignity and respect
- Guidance to embed inclusive practice across teams and organisations

"Participation in the LGBT Champions Training Programme is an absolute must for any organisation striving to become an ally to the LGBTQI+ community."

- Wed 27 May 2026

LIMITED PLACES AVAILABLE

Next dates coming up: Wednesday 29th April, Wednesday 27th May - Online from 1pm to 5pm

LGBT Ireland has just confirmed the first new dates for 2026 for the LGBT Champions Programme.

LGBT Ireland's Online LGBT Champions Training Programme supports health and social care professionals to provide safer, more inclusive care for LGBTQI+ older people.

Older LGBTQI+ people are more likely to live alone, experience isolation, and fear discrimination in care settings. Many worry about being forced "back into the closet" when seeking support. The Champions Programme offers practical, evidence-informed training and resources to help services respond with dignity, confidence, and respect.

People can apply by: Scanning the QR code on the attached poster, completing the online application here:

THE HomeShare

Homeshare is a simple concept with numerous and wide-ranging benefits for all participants. Householders are people who have a home they are open to sharing but require a little support and companionship in return. Householders with a room to spare are carefully matched, with Garda vetted accommodation seekers (Homesharers). Based on their support requirements, shared interests, and personality. The Homesharer provides 10 hours of practical support and companionship as well as an overnight presence each week in exchange for their accommodation. Read more

Nurses for Night Care

Irish Hospice Foundation funds the Nurses for Night Care service for people dying with illnesses other than cancer. Nurses for Night Care enables people with diseases like dementia, motor neurone disease, advanced respiratory disease, heart failure and end stage kidney disease to receive expert nursing care and support at night in their own homes in their final days. It also provides reassurance and respite for families and loved ones caring for someone at home. Read more

Information and Support Line

Facing or caring for a friend or family member with a life-limiting illness can be both a challenging and uncertain time for anyone. The Information and Support Line is a confidential line that provides signposting, practical supports and resources about end-of-life care in Ireland. It is important to note that the Information and Support Line is not a medical, emergency or crisis service. The Information and Support line is available on freephone 1800 60 70 66 from 9am – 1pm, Monday to Friday (excluding bank holidays and other holiday periods). You can also email queries to support@hospicefoundation.ie

Bereavement Support Line

No-one has to grieve alone. Our Bereavement Support Line is here to provide comfort and support. If you are grieving or worried about someone else who is, call Freephone 1800 80 70 77, available Monday to Friday 10am to 1pm. This service offers a confidential space for individuals to discuss their grief or ask questions related to the death of someone they care about. The service aims to provide comfort and emotional support, and any information shared is kept confidential unless necessary for safeguarding reasons. Music for Good Friday

COLLEGIUM | Mark Duley, director

HEINRICH SCHÜTZ
Matthäus-Passion SWV 479

Heinrich Schütz's Matthäus-Passion is one of composer's three passions written towards the end of his life. The Matthäus-Passion is written for choir and ten soloists, including the major roles of Evangelist and Jesus. The whole work is unaccompanied, yet its spare texture nevertheless contains passages of rich harmony and dramatic depictions of the Gospel narrative. This is a passion setting which is the perfect distilled reflection of Good Friday's stark atmosphere and scripture's compelling record.

COLLEGIUM | Mark Duley, director - HEINRICH SCHÜTZ Matthäus-Passion SWV 479

Heinrich Schütz' Matthäus-Passion is one of composer's three passions written towards the end of his life. These passions, and in particular the Matthäus-Passion, represent the crowning achievement of the greatest German composer of the seventeenth century, and paved the way for the later settings of J.S. Bach and others. The Matthäus-Passion is written for choir and ten soloists, including the major roles of Evangelist and Jesus. The whole work is unaccompanied, its spare texture nevertheless containing passages of rich harmonies and dramatic depictions of the Gospel narrative. This is a passion setting which is the perfect distilled reflection of Good Friday's stark atmosphere and scripture's compelling record. The Spirit of the Place - Mary Fahy's Brigid's Well paintings

Until 8th April 2026 - Field Galaxy Gallery, The Expanded Field, Cosmona, Loughrea H62 EK76

Mary Fahy's current series of painting are inspired by rituals grief practices at St. Brigid's Well, in Liscannor, Co. Clare. The statues at the well are weighted down with mementos. These love/grief tokens represent the commonality of grief. Her work attempt to honour the memories held at this powerful site, with compassion for those who are suffering or who have passed on. We are all just passing thorough. View by appointment contact: expandedfieldloughrea@gmail.com
